OLDEN TIME BARBERS' OUTING

Portsmouth Old Time Barbers' Association Enjoying an Outing

A Picture That Will Stir the Memories of the Older Tonsorialists

This picture presents a group of Portsmouth old time barbers at an annual picnic in their balmy days. This gathering of the local knights of the razor occurred over twenty years ago and those who still do business at the chair will recall the happy day at Dow's Woods, Wallis Sands.

Of these seventeen members who then made up the Portsmouth Barbers' Association, Messrs. Dean, Moore, Haley, Roberts, Woodsum and Clark have long since passed to the land from which no man returns. The majority of the remainder are still in business in this city.

MOVING AND RAISING THE TRACK

The local electric railroad are making a slight change in their tracks on

Miller ave. It was found on one side of the track that it was a tight squeeze for the car and a big automobile to pass at the same time. This was demonstrated this week when a big automobile coming in at the time the Rye car was going out caught and both had to come to a stop. The track will be moved over a foot or more and at the same time raised.

IS GENERAL HAINS CRAZY?

Father of Slayer Of Annis Makes Attack on the New York Courts

New York, June 19.—An amazing plea as made today by General Peter C. Hains in behalf of his son, Captain Hains, who is in prison for killing William E. Annis. The father's plea is in the form of a signed statement, a portion of which is as follows:

"Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., was born in 1872. He graduated with credit from the Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1894. Took a two years' course in electrical engineering at the Johns Hopkins University in 1895. Practiced as civil engineer until 1898, when he was appointed a Lieutenant in the artillery of the U. S. army. Served as such in the Spanish war and was recommended for appointment by brevet to next higher grade of gallant and meritorious conduct in the campaign in Porto Rico.

"During his entire service in the army he was regarded as an officer of more than ordinary ability by his superiors and respected by his subordinates.

"In September, 1907, he was ordered by the government to transport duty, which took him away from his home in the Philippine islands. He was compelled to leave behind him his family consisting of a wife and three small children to whom he was devotedly attached.

"He returned in May, 1908, and found that while he was absent his home had been destroyed.

"Divorce proceedings were instituted, when, on August 13, to his amazement, he himself was falsely charged in a crossbill. Then his reason, already strained almost beyond endurance, gave way and in a state bordering on insanity, if not wholly demented, he happened to meet the destroyer of his home and killed him.

"He was tried in the latter part of April, 1909, for murder. The jury stood six for acquittal and six for conviction but after being out several hours, and for reasons best known to themselves, rendered a compromise verdict of manslaughter. Subsequently they all united in a recommendation to the judge for clemency.

"That Captain Hains was mentally unbalanced at the time there can be no doubt. The utter impotency of the law to give him protection under such circumstances (for, as a matter of fact, it does not) impelled him to an act for which he is now serving. The provocation he had is unprecedented in the annals of crime.

"Can any one imagine a train of circumstances so calculated to upset a man's reason. The law is intended to protect the innocent. But here was a case where human law could afford no protection. The supposed friend of Captain Hains had not only disgraced his children and destroyed his home, but had caused him to be charged with a crime so revolting that it cannot be spoken of among decent people and is incapable of disproof.

"The law was impotent to protect the honor of this officer and he was compelled to do what most men who lose their home and family would do under similar circumstances, for the shock would unbalance the strongest of men.

"Captain Hains may technically have violated the statute law of New York state, but there are many states in this union where he would not have been held for even a technical violation of the law under the peculiar and unprecedented circumstances.

"Shall such a man, an officer of the army, with a record for pluck and honesty equal to the best, be branded as a criminal? Can anyone imagine a provocation more hideous?"

"BETTER C. HAINS."

Friday night was severely cold and the farmers say that the high wind was all that prevented a killing frost. At South Berwick car barn this morning the mercury stood at thirty-two degrees above zero which is a very low temperature for June 19.

In connection with the commencement exercises held at Berwick academy on Friday the Kellier prize was awarded to Miss Hilda Estelle Hanscom of South Eliot. The prize, $75 in gold, was donated by Timothy Kellier of Boston and is awarded annually to that member of the junior class who demonstrates by special examinations superior scholarship in the English department. Miss Hanscom at an early age displayed an interest in books and an aptitude for learning. She entered Berwick academy in the autumn of 1906 and at the close of her first academic year was awarded a Cogswell prize book for excellence in deportment and scholarship. She was born in 1892, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Hanscom, who reside at their estate known as "Clover Farm." Her brother, Charles L. Hanscom of Boston, a graduate of the same school, also won the Kellier prize when a student in the academy. It will be recalled that another Eliot girl, Miss Margaret J. Adlington, won the first prize at the annual prize speaking at the Academy this week.

Dr. and Mrs. John M. L. Willis were among the visitors at the Berwick Academy graduation on Friday.

Disease Germs Carried In the Hair

There is no medium known which is so largely responsible for carrying contagion from one point to another as the hair. There constantly comes from the pores of the scalp an oil which gets on the hair and seems to be a favorite lodging place and breeding place for germs. If the truth were actually known, it would be found that more diseases are communicated from house to house through germs lodging in the hair than by any other one means. And in the face of this great truth there are some people who don't wash their hair and head oftener than every month or two, and some not so often as that. The old idea that a shampoo once a month or two was sufficient is positively wrong. It is just as necessary to keep the head and hair clean as to keep the face and hands clean. Doctor Lassar, the famous German professor, says the first step toward stopping the falling of hair and toward hair health generally is to keep the scalp clean by washing. This should be done daily in the beginning, and as the scalp assumes a more normal condition, the head can be washed less frequently. But don't make the mistake of using ordinary soaps and shampoos. Use the one thing in all this world which is above suspicion and that is Birt's Head Wash. It is made of Refined Soap, Cochin Cinnamon Oil, White of Eggs, Glycerin and Salicylic Acid. This formula is so generally recognized as proper that you are invited to ask any physician you know what he thinks about it. Birt's Head Wash doesn't simply take off the dirt, dandruff, germs and microbes, but it leaves the scalp soft and moist and the hair fine and glossy. It is sold to you for just what it is, and there is nothing mysterious or magical about it. It removes the dirt, dandruff and disease germs, and under these improved conditions the hair takes on new vigor naturally. Here you have the facts in the case, and we leave it to you whether or not they are worthy of your confidence. You will be astonished how many impurities will be found in your head and hair, because nothing takes them out like Birt's Head Wash.

AMERICANS LEFT OUT

London, June 18.—Great Britain has asked America not to press her claim for participation in the Panama Canal Railroad zone at 1910, which British, German and French bankers stand ready to take up. This request had been made in January 1909, the British ambassador at Washington, Lord Curzon, pointing out that the arrangements for this loan were concluded after the greatest difficulty, entailing long negotiations between the British, German and French bankers concerned and the American government. An American did not ask to join therein. It was presumed that she did not desire to take the share to which she was entitled under her convention with China.

WHO WILL BE RETIRED?

Washington, June 19.—What the navy retiring board will do when it meets in July is causing considerable concern to certain officers. This board selects for retirement the number of officers necessary to make the vacancies prescribed by the navy personnel law. There may be fifteen such compulsory retirements of officers above the grade of Lieutenant commander. There must be created nineteen vacancies, the number having been increased by a decision of the Secretary of the Navy that the retirement of three officers under the thirty-year service law may not be deemed vacancies of the sort required by law. Against these nineteen vacancies to be created will be placed the applications for retirement, and every effort is being made to induce officers to apply for retirement, their voluntarily action entitling them to retirement at the next higher grade. Officers who fear selections are apt to apply but in the mean time the Secretary of the Navy has decided that no information shall be given out concerning such applications.

It was so cold last evening that there was every indication of a frost before morning.

FARNUM'S NAME IS MENTIONED

Actor Often Seen With Mrs.
Gould, Say Witnesses

CALLED HIM "NEW BEAU"

Floor Clerks In Philadelphia Hotel and Former Gould Chauffeur Take Witness Stand—Servants Give Further Testimony That Plaintiff Was Repeatedly Seen by Them Under Influence of Liquor

New York, June 19.—The flow of testimony adduced by the defense in the suit for separation brought by Katherine C. Gould against her husband, Howard Gould, kept edging more and more Friday toward Dustin Farnum, the actor, whose broad shoulders and mop of curly hair have become a familiar figure in the case.

There was in addition further iteration by servants and personal attendants that Mrs. Gould was repeatedly seen by them under the influence of liquor and that when she had been drinking, as they alleged on the stand, she changed from a charming, affable woman to a creature of whim and caprice, ill-tempered, not nice in her choice of language, overbearing, quarrelsome.

Mrs. Gould's one-time personal valet swore that at one time he served his mistress two quarts of Manhattan cocktails in two days, in addition to the wines and liquors which he said she drank at table. In cross-examination the witnesses, Clarence J. Shearn, for Mrs. Gould, strove always to prove either that they had a personal grudge against her or that they were under obligations to Gould.

Endearing epithets twice embellished the testimony. John H. Kimball, an oil and paint dealer, who said he had known Gould for eighteen years, testified that he went to a performance of "The Virginian" in August, 1906, with Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Sells and the Goulds at the Academy of Music in this city, and that Dustin Farnum, the star of the play, joined the party outside the playhouse after the performance and spoke to Mrs. Gould. She smiled, the witness testified, and said to the witness: "This is my new beau."

John Flynn, who said he had been employed by Mrs. Gould as a chauffeur, and that he had often driven her to meet Farnum after the play, testified that on one occasion when the automobile, with Mrs. Gould in it, was waiting for Farnum at the Hotel Somerset, two men turned to the actor as he came out of the hotel door and asked him whose automobile was waiting.

"Oh," said Farnum, laughing, Flynn testified, "that is my new one."

At another time Flynn swore, when he rapped on Mrs. Gould's chamber door at the St. Regis, she called out: "All right, dearie," and then, when she saw who it was, excused herself with: "I thought it was Mr. Farnum."

Mary E. Harrison, who said she was a floor clerk in the Bellevue-Stratford hotel in Philadelphia, said that Mrs. Gould occupied apartments on the floor where she was stationed in September, 1906, and one morning, she said, she saw a man come out of Mrs. Gould's rooms about 7:30 and take the elevator. She described the man as tall, with dark, bushy hair, and wearing a soft hat and a long coat.

Duty Is Exacted on Chinese Edible of Similar Appearance

Boston, June 19.—Chinese sausages are not bologna sausages, either geographically or commercially, according to a decision by Judge Lowell in the United States circuit court in upholding the decision of the government appraisers, who declared a duty of 25 percent on the new imported edibles.

A local Chinese merchant sought to have the sausages from his native country come in as bologna on the ground that they were made like the German product, which are admitted free, but the government decided otherwise.

WRIGHTS RECEIVE MEDALS

Ceremony in Their Home Town Witnessed by Many Thousands

Dayton, O., June 19.—Wilbur and Orville Wright, the aviators, have received the medals awarded them by act of congress, by the legislature of Ohio, and by their home city of Dayton. Over 120,000 persons celebrated the event.

Wilbur Wright, on receiving the medals, made a speech in which he likened an inventor to a poet, saying that neither poet nor inventor would suffer indifference if their wants were really known.

General Allen, representing Secretary of War Dickinson, presented the national medals. Governor Harman presented the Ohio medals, and Mayor Burkhardt of Dayton gave the local medals. The presentation ceremony was held in the fair grounds. Behind the Wrights sat 2500 school children dressed in red, white and blue, and arranged to represent an American flag. Troops and brass bands gave a military aspect to the occasion.

A SAFE-BLOWING JOB

Results In Sheriff and Two Lawyers
Being Charged With Burglary

Honolulu, June 19.—The latest development of the complicated situation which has grown out of the strike of Japanese plantation laborers and the subsequent arrest of their leaders is a charge of burglary preferred by Attorney Lightfoot, who represents the accused men, against High Sheriff Heney and Attorneys Kinney and Prosser, counsel for the Planters' association.

The accusation grows out of the blowing of the safe in the office of The Jiji, a Japanese newspaper, and the seizure of books and papers belonging to Editor Soga and others. These papers are alleged to have revealed a conspiracy among the leaders of the strike to obtain control of the islands. The alleged conspiracy is now under investigation by a grand jury.

WILL BE AMERICA'S GREATEST SONGFEST

Six Thousand Voices to Be Heard In Chorus In New York

New York, June 19.—For size and distinction the musical festival which will begin tonight in Madison Square Garden, to last four days, has probably never been rivaled in America. The men in charge of the festival declare that never before has there been assembled in this country so great a number of singers to interpret the works of the masters of the musical art.

Among the prominent features of the festival will be concerts rendered by a male chorus of 6000 voices and an orchestra of 100 pieces. A special feature will be the contest open to the singing societies of the United States competing for the famous "kaiser prize," a statue donated to the United Singers of New York by Emperor William.

For the first time in the history of music festivals in America there will be competitive prize singing by American glee clubs for a prize donated by a well known American citizen, for which clubs in the east and middle west have been invited to compete.

President Taft and Governor Hughes, with many other persons of prominence, have promised to attend the festival. Two of the five judges of the principal events are Germans appointed by Emperor William.

SIXTY HORSES PERISH

Sparks Set Fire to a Large Stable In South Boston

Boston, June 19.—Sparks from a shoeing forge which set fire to the Old Colony stables in South Boston, owned Wilson, Tinsdale & Co., resulted in the burning of sixty horses which were quartered on the second and third floors. The building was badly damaged, the total loss being about $30,000.

While climbing a ladder to superintend the release of the horses, of which there were nearly 150 in the building, three firemen were thrown forty feet to the ground when the iron "dogs" on the ladder slipped. The men were not seriously injured.

ROW OF A YEAR AGO

It Results In Killing of Middle-Aged Man by a Youth

Woonsocket, R. I., June 19.—Because John La Rose spat in his face and threw a spittoon at him during a game of cards a year ago, Carmel Cresul fired two shots into his body last night, La Rose dying instantly. Both men are Italians. La Rose was 50 years old. Cresul is aged 19.

The shooting occurred at the corner of Sayles and River streets. After he had fired the two shots, Cresul ran through the city, but was captured. He will be arraigned on the charge of murder.

DECOMPOSED BODY IN TRUNK

Found In Room of Chinaman In New York

MISSION WORKER KILLED

Indications That Victim Was Granddaughter of General Sigel of Civil War Fame—Disappearance of Chinaman Who Conducted Rooming House
Adds to Ostracism to Mystery—Police
Want English-Speaking Celestial

New York, June 19.—Elizabeth Sigel, daughter of Paul Sigel of this city and granddaughter of Franz Sigel, the German warrior who enlisted his services with the Union army during the Civil war, was, according to all indications, the victim of one of the most sordid murders in the history of New York.

Taken from a trunk in a room of a Chinaman above a chop-suey restaurant in the Tenderloin, the body, in a state of decomposition which makes identification very difficult, lies in the morgue, while detectives are collecting the threads of a tangled story involving the girl and her associations with Chinese.

Elizabeth, or Elsie, was 20 years old and was greatly interested in mission work among the Chinese. It is understood that she became acquainted with one Chinaman who may be able to throw some light on the case, several years ago when he conducted a cane-rack at an amusement park at Port George. The Sigel home in the Bronx is not far away from that resort. Neighbors say that the calls of the Chinaman at the house ceased more than a year ago.

An envelope addressed to the girl, found in the room where the body lay, a locket bearing her initials, her disappearance on June 10 and a note found in the room, signed "Elsie," all seem to indicate that Elsie Sigel was murdered.

The body was partially stripped of its clothing, tied with ropes, wrapped in a faded blue blanket and crammed into a dilapidated trunk, where it lay for a week at least before the odor crept through the building, arousing the suspicions of the phlegmatic proprietor of the restaurant below, who summoned the police and instituted an investigation.

The officers found a butcher's cleaver, which gave further color to the murder theory as borne out by the bloody corpse.

Mrs. Paul Sigel, early this morning, when shown the jewelry found in the trunk containing the body of the murdered girl, identified it as that worn by her daughter, Elsie.

Sun Leong, proprietor of the restaurant, who also conducted the rooming house above, disappeared shortly after the discovery of the murder, adding further obstacles to the mystery. The case has unusual features, notable among which is the fact that a Chinaman has been known to call at the Sigel home, presumably with the sanction of the parents.

Paul Sigel arrived at the morgue to which place the body had been removed about midnight. Here arrangements were made so that the badly disfigured face could be seen to best advantage, but even then Sigel would not say that it was his daughter. He declined to look at various letters and other bits of evidence which would seem to indicate that it was she.

Three Chinamen were arrested as material witnesses. They gave the names of Yee Kim, manager of Sun Leong's restaurant; Gong Wing, salesman for a chop suey supply house, and Chin Sun, cook, who lived in the rear restaurant.

The man most wanted, however, is the former occupant of the room where the body was found, evidently an English speaking celestial, who either knew Elsie Sigel or knew some one that knew her. And judging from the letters this individual is Leong Lee Lim, known among his English friends as William H. Lion.

Mrs. Florence M. Todd, one of the resident workers in the Chinatown and Bowery settlement, who is a friend of the Sigel family, called at the morgue and after viewing the body identified some of the underclothing as that worn by Elsie Sigel.

FROM NEW YORK TO BLOCK ISLAND

Cruising Power Boats Entered
In an Interesting Race

New York, June 19.—Motorboat enthusiasts all along the Atlantic seaboard are interested in today's power boat race from Wreckberry (or Huckleberry) Island, in Long Island sound, near this city, to Block Island, off the coast of Rhode Island. The race will be sailed under the auspices of the New York Athletic club as a repetition of last year's very successful contest. The distance is 100 nautical miles, equal to 115 land miles.

A dozen cruising power boats from twenty-five to forty feet in length are entered in the race. Each boat carries a crew of three, and the conditions require the presence on board of the owner or his representative in the person of a member of a recognized yacht club. Some of the fastest motorboats of America are entered in the race.

Long Trial of Patrick Calhoun Is Drawing to a Close

San Francisco, June 19.—The case against Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, on trial for the alleged bribery of Ferdinand P. Nichols, a member of the Mayor Schmitz board of "boodling" supervisors of San Francisco was given to the jury today.

Throughout the long session yesterday the audience which crowded the court room listened closely to Mr. Henry's analysis of the case, his bitter invectives against the defendant and his impassioned demand that Calhoun be sent to the "penitentiary."

The match is open to six man teams from all universities or colleges conferring degrees. The championship was won in 1905, the first year of the competition, by Princeton and in 1906 and 1908 by George Washington, there being no match in 1907.

FRIENDSHIP IS CEMENTED

Continuance of Russo-German Good Relations

THE MEETING OF EMPERORS

Interview Between Nicholas and William Regarded In European Capitals as Tending to Preservation of Peace
—Opinion That Russian Relations
With Austria Cannot Long Remain
Bad—Czar to Visit Other Monarchs

Berlin, June 19.—The Wolff Bureau, the official German news gathering agency, has received a wireless dispatch from its representative accompanying Emperor William, giving an interview he had with an official personage on the German view of the results of the meeting of the monarchs.

"The meeting," the official said, "was new proof of the traditional hearty friendship between the ruling houses of Germany and Russia. Various pending political questions were touched upon in the conferences held by the statesmen accompanying the emperors, the result showing that no conflicting views on them exist."

"Both sides sincerely wish for a continuance of the friendly feelings and to further cement the good relations that now exist between the two countries. Both countries are as one in the purpose of a peaceful solution of every political question that may arise."

Opinion in European Capitals

London, June 19.—It is not known here whether the meeting between Emperor William and Emperor Nicholas was made the occasion for political negotiations between their respective ministers, but in all the European capitals the interview is regarded as tending to the preservation of the peace.

The official organs at Vienna and other capitals incline to the opinion that nothing has really been changed in European relations.

The Neue Freie Presse of Vienna describes the meeting as the first patch of blue sky seen in the European heavens since the autumn, and together with other Austrian papers it expresses the conviction that with such a manifestation of Russo-German friendship Russo-Austrian relations cannot long remain bad.

The Standard's Vienna correspondent says that the probability that Emperor Nicholas will meet Emperor Francis Joseph in the course of the year finds credence in well-informed quarters.

The Morning Post's St. Petersburg correspondent says he hears that after his visit to Italy Emperor Nicholas will visit Sultan Mehmed V at Constantinople, thence proceeding to Livadia, where the sultan will return the visit.

SOMEBODY BLUNDERED

No Grave Results Will Follow the Firing on the Woodburn

St. Petersburg, June 19.—The British embassy here has received a report concerning the firing upon the British steamer Woodburn Wednesday night by a vessel of the Russian squadron which was patrolling the vicinity of Pithulpa bay, where Emperor Nicholas and Emperor William were to meet the following day. The report has not been made public.

The belief that any grave developments would follow the affair has been excluded, however, as it was evidently the result of some one's blunder, for which either or both sides are willing to express regrets.

While private dispatches assert that the Woodburn was steering in accordance with directions given her by a conveying torpedo boat, naval officers of the squadron declare the steamer was heading directly for the Standard and that they could not afford to run the risk of having the imperial yacht run down.

WATSON AT THE HEAD

Wins 232-Mile Race of Light Cars In the "Western Vanderbilt"

Crown Point, Ind., June 19.—First honors in the opening "Western Vanderbilt" automobile race went to Joseph Watson, who piloted a Chambers-Detroit car to a brilliant victory over fifteen rivals. The race was for light cars.

The leading time finished as follows: Chambers-Detroit (Watson), 4:41:21; Locomobile (Robertson), 4:52:00; Marlon (Monsen), 4:42:02.

The time of the other cars was not taken as they were flagged off the course after the first three had finished. The total distance was 232.71 miles.

Abdul Hamid's Gruesome Keepsake
Constantinople, June 19.—There has been found in a cellar where the former sultan's victims were imprisoned a box containing a skull supposed to have been that of Midhat Pasha, whose head was brought to Constantinople by Abdul Hamid's order to prove that Midhat was really dead. Midhat was grand vizier in 1872 and again in 1876-77.

SIGNATURE NOT GENUINE

New Tack Taken by the Defense in the Brandenburg Trial

New York, June 19.—The authenticity of two words on a slip of paper in a glass case—"Glover Cleveland"—about which the trial of Houghton Brandenburg, the magazine writer, charged with grand larceny for the sale to the New York Times of an article purporting to have been written by Cleveland, has largely centered so far, dropped somewhat from their place of importance when Brandenburg's counsel announced that his client would admit that the signature was a forgery and not that of the former President of the United States.

This rather surprising turn in the case came after Richard W. Glover, the magazine editor, had declared emphatically on the stand that the signature as shown him was not that of his old friend, Glover Cleveland.

Brandenburg said he intended to show that the forged signature was substituted for the real one. "I never saw this signature till the trial commenced," he said.

Two handwriting experts pronounced the signature a forgery and added that in their opinion the defendant wrote it himself.

MOB IN ANGRY MOOD

Run Bishop Bonacum and Two Priests
Out of Nebraska Town

Ulysses, Neb., June 19.—Bishop Bonacum of the Catholic diocese of Lincoln, Father O'Brien of Seward and Father Kline of Brainard, were last night driven from this village by a mob of some 200 persons.

The bishop and his priests had come to take possession of a church over which Father Murphy had charge. Sympathizers of Murphy joined the mob and would have done violence to the bishop and the priests had it not been for the strenuous efforts of Murphy, who counseled moderation.

Father O'Brien finally got a livery rig and with Bonacum and Kline left in the direction of David City. This rig was followed by the church enemies, and was overtaken three miles out of town.

Bishop and priests were forced to get out and walk, and when last seen the bishop and the priests were walking along the road toward David City.

THINKS FOSTER WAS "COOLED"

Myers Resigns as President of Chicago Baptist Council

Chicago, June 19.—As the result of criticism of the part he played in a futile attempt to oust Professor Foster of the University of Chicago from the Baptist ministry because of the teachings of Foster's book, Rev. Johnston Myers, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church, has resigned as president and superintendent of the Baptist executive council of the Chicago conference. The resignation was accepted. In offering his resignation Myers said:

"If you want a jellyfish for a leader, you can go and get one. Because I defended the faith of our church against Professor Foster's teachings of doubt and infidelity, I am publicly attacked by my fellow ministers, while this Unitarian is cooled."

WILL BE SCRAP FOR BLOOD

Family Reasons to Make the Attell-
Neil Fight Interesting

San Francisco, June 19.—Today's scrap between Monte Attell and Frankie Neil will be fought as much for blood and the satisfaction of a grudge as for the cash at stake. The two boxers have had it in for each other for some time owing to family reasons. Neil has been trimmed several times by Abe Attell, the featherweight champion, who is a brother of Monte, and has announced his intention of getting even by beating Monte.

Fight followers generally think that Neil is a has-been and is due for another whipping. The fight is scheduled to go twenty rounds.

Suspicion That Newly Married Couple
Were Victims of Poison

Wilmington, Del., June 19.—Albert Munro and his bride of a week were found dead in their chamber. On a dresser was a partially filled box of cigarettes. There was nothing to indicate violence and it is believed that they were victims of poisoned candy.

They were in their nightclothes and the candy was burning brightly. The woman's body was on the floor and the man was leaning forward across the bed.

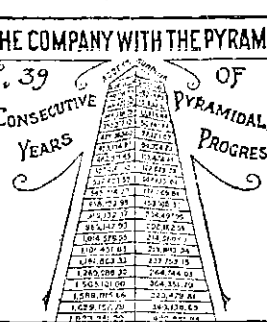

Teamster Crushed to Death

Boston, June 19.—Crushed to death beneath the wheels of his own team was the fate of Patrick Rooney of Everett. He slipped from his seat in a chariot and the heavy double team passed over him. He was 28 years old.

A SMALL CELEBRATION

Boston celebrated Bunker Hill day on Thursday, June 17. Among the results were four fires and ninety hospital patients directly attributed to the celebration. That was a small celebration. What will happen on the "Glorious Fourth" and where will the glory come in?

BIRD'S EYE VIEWS

The valuation of Rochester shows an increase of about $55,000 over last year but the rate is raised from 2.10 per cent to 2.35 per cent. Last year was the first year in the history of Rochester when the rate has exceeded two per cent. This was caused last year by the increase in the county tax, as was explained at that time. This year, not only the county tax is raised but the state tax is over $5,000 in excess of that of last year. The state and county taxes together are more than $10,000 larger than they were two years ago. This alone is sufficient to account for nearly the entire increase in the tax rate. There have been additional city expenditures, also, such as the new city hall, which not only necessitates larger interest expenditures but many added expenses in the way of help, insurance, coal and the like.

William H. F. Chase, who was buried at Salem Depot last Thursday at the age of seventy-seven years, had for many years Sunday mornings taken his horse and carriage and gone about the town and taken all the older ladies to church, and after church services were over he would then carry them home.

TWO INSPECTORS DROPPED

License Commissioners Have But Three Left in Their Service

Concord, June 19.—The state license commissioners last evening announced that Special Agents Thomas Flood of Nashua and Frederic E. Small of Rochester had been dropped from the roll.

The special agents left in the service are G. Scott Locke of Concord, Frank W. Ordway of Milford and Leon E. Nagdon of Littleton. The salary of the special agents is $1200 and expenses.

When the commission tendered its report to the governor and council last winter one of the recommendations was the decrease in the number of special agents. There have always been five special agents, and in the early days of the license law they were necessary, for there was a great deal of investigating work to be done. Now the law is in full operation there was need of the services of not more than three. The action was taken with the consent of the governor and council, who to some extent have an equal voice with the commissioners in matters of this kind.

AT DARTMOUTH

The Dartmouth freshmen by defeating the sophomores Friday afternoon, 6 to 5, win the interclass series. Biery, the freshman, was a puzzle to the sophomores, striking out 17 men and letting them off with four hits. Wilder was driven out of the box in the first.

New York dispatches state that three hundred of the alumni of Dartmouth college attended the informal reception at the hotel Astor last night to meet Dr. Ernest F. Nichols, who has just been elected president of Dartmouth, to succeed Dr. Tucker. None of the old alumni had his light under a bushel, but all were willing tonight, at least, to let their Dartmouth spirit shine forth for once and show their interest in the old college "Set Among the Cloisters of a Hill Girt Plain."

Among those who attended were: Wentworth S. Butler, a descendant of the last royal governor of New Hampshire, and a graduate of the class of '46; George Haseltine, class '54; Luther Little, Ex-Judge William M. Cohen, U. S. District Judge Charles M. Hough, Philip Carpenter, George J. Carr and Otis C. Hovey.

The following telegram was read from the present president of Dartmouth, Dr. W. J. Tucker:

"To the New York alumni: We send Dr. Nichols to you fresh from enthusiastic greetings of the faculty and the undergraduates. I congratulate the New York alumni upon the opportunity so fully taken to introduce the president-elect of the college to the whole loyal alumni. (Signed) "W. J. Tucker." Charles F. Mathewson of the board of trustees on behalf of that body. Introduces the president-elect Dr. Nichols in due part:

"The daring your trustees shower in their latest appointment has received the editorial praise it deserves. Would a timid man have dared to go to Dartmouth after Dr. Tucker? We

WOMAN, LOVELY WOMAN

But Alas, Without Beautiful Hair No Woman Can be Handsome

A great many newspapers and magazines are printing pages on how a woman can be beautiful and keep beautiful.

And everyone, as you can see for yourself admits that no woman can be really beautiful unless she has lustrous and luxuriant hair.

The women of Paris are, as a rule, beautiful and keep beautiful, and careful American observer who has travelled much claims that their beauty is due to their knowledge of how to keep their hair luxuriant which they do by using a superior hair tonic.

Many American women are as wise as their French sisters, and that is why Parisian fashions, the quick aging and greatest of all hair restorers and tonics, is now having such a tremendous sale in America.

We ask every woman reader of this paper to give this marvelous hair beautifier a thorough trial, and we gladly make them this liberal offer:

Get a large 50 cent bottle from Goodwin E. Philbrick today, the largest for the money in America. Use it as directed for two weeks. If at the end of that time you are not satisfied with results, say so to Goodwin E. Philbrick and he will give you your money back.

Besides being a delightful and invigorating hair dressing, free from grease and stickiness, Parisian Sage will surely cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp, or money back.

The girl with the Auburn hair is in every package, and leading drug lists in every town sell Parisian Sage.

A TIMELY TOPIC

—BY—
BLISS PERRY,
Professor English Literature, Harvard

The Coherent
Life.

Young men find politics all askew. Party lines are either disappearing or wavering, and they are filled with discouragement. Life seems one great mass of incoherencies. It is the same in business life. Men rush this way and that. There seems to be no settled plan. Yet under it all there is the universal desire to attain coherence, and it is this very fact which shows so plainly the incoherence.

Coherence is not opposed to richness of function and ornament, to a manifold variety of organization and capacity. But it does suggest the presence of some unifying principle, some co-ordinating force; and likewise the practical ability not only to plan one's work, but to work one's plan.

A man pulls himself together, as we say, after some disintegrating experience, such as a bereavement, a failure, a mental or physical dissipation, or it may be after the shock of new ideas, the bewildering vision of wider horizons. He adjusts himself, painfully or joyfully, to the altered conditions and lives once more a coherent life.

When we agree to praise the principle of the coherent life we must make one reservation. Our pattern of behavior and conduct must not be too small. The rights of growth must be safeguarded. Vitality is the essential thing. The plant is worth more than the pot. What seems incoherent often seems so because it is really so full of matter; just as some stutter because they have so much to say.

I have no desire to make comparison with the Simple Life or the strenuous Life. I pin my faith on the Coherent Life.

shall soon have ideal men at Dartmouth; ideal from the ground up to the chin. I want to see the college reach a height where the country at large will be forced to acknowledge her supremacy in moral vigor; scholarship and bodily prowess. This great city which surrounds us here tonight, the hardest place in all the world to convince of anything, must be convinced of this before we rest."

Dr. Nichols was followed by Judge Hough, who praised the virtues of Dartmouth.

NAVAL NOTES

England, the mother country, is not alone in having a "German scare." Her continent colony, Australia, is affected in the same way, and it appears, not without reason. Germany is establishing a new headquarters and naval base in the western Pacific. Simpsonhafen in New Britain or New Pomerania, as the Germans have renamed it, is the scene of this undertaking. This country being off the northeast coast of New Guinea and within a short distance of the Australian coast accounts for the part that the news is playing in the Australian national calculations. Four years ago the Germans began to establish coaling stations at Simpsonhafen which is admirably adapted for the purpose, the harbor being surrounded by high hills suitable for fortification and possessing a narrow, easily guarded entrance. The North German Lloyd company erected a wharf far larger than its requirements called for, and capable of accommodating the largest warships, the land at the back of the jetty being reserved by the German government for the purpose of docks and workshops. Immense wharfage accommodation is already in existence and a large block of land has been set aside, where coal can be stored in numerous quantities. While it is not reported or believed that there is any intention on the part of the German government to make this place the rendezvous of naval vessels, nevertheless the creation of conditions which would make such a policy possible on short notice is something to which the people and the government of Australia cannot remain indifferent. It is said by those who have seen the place since the wharf building and other operations have been under way, that owing to the peculiar formation of the country, hardly more than a month would be necessary to make it almost impregnable.

A BIT OF TRUTH

When mother felt morbid and downcast and punk away to the garret she'd steal and smuggle down close by an old leather trunk and read a few yards of "Lucille"—Philadelphia Bulletin.

But now, when poor mother is woozy with care, and maddened with worries maternal, she throws herself down on a big easy chair and picks up the Ladies' Home Journal.—Chicago Record-Herald.

But Sis, when she tires of the passions and fashions and heart throbs and hints to be won, gets down to brass tacks and peruses three books—"The Blue Book" and "Bradstreet" and "Dun"—Cleveland Leader.

But father, when through with the cares of the day, and the children their beds are tucked in, into the library wadeleth away and revels in Elmore Glyn.—Boston Herald.

And all of the family six days a week, when supper time cometh around, The Portsmouth Herald will earnestly seek, for that's where the news is found.

SUPPORT THE PRESIDENT

Wm. E. Chandler Has Issued a Great Rallying Cry

Concord, June 19.—William E. Chandler, former United States senator and former secretary of the navy, has issued a signed public statement in which he urges all progressive Republicans to support President Taft in his attitude on the income tax. The statement follows:

"All progressive and radical Republicans should promptly sustain President Taft in the two great fights he has bravely inaugurated. The question of a coming graduated income tax pending before the state legislatures all over the union and of an immediate national tax on all corporate incomes is the biggest fight for the people that any president has made. The malefactors of great wealth will renounce and denounce the president, whom they have thought they could control. The sugar trust, the Standard Oil company, the steel company, will turn their batteries against the president's plan. The progressives should see their opportunity and rush as one man to the president's support as the plutocrats desert him.

"In New Hampshire every Republican, regular or progressive, and all the Democrats should make an outcry in behalf of the corporation-income tax now, and an amendment of the constitution and a permanent universal income tax later. This is the way in which we must provide for our huge army and navy expenditures, which it seems impossible to check.

"WILLIAM E. CHANDLER."

NEW HAMPSHIRE MEN

Owned Portable Sawmill That Was Burned in a Maine Town.

Fire at Palermo Center, Maine, last Saturday destroyed the portable lumber mill owned by Elliott & Planders of New Hampshire, located on the Wilber Glidden farm. The fire started while the crew were at dinner. Although the engineer did not leave the mill till 12:30 on his return at 1 o'clock the fire was under such headway that he was unable to reach the whistle to give the alarm. A large number arrived in a short time called out by the telephone but too late to render assistance as in about 20 minutes the mill was reduced to ashes, only the new planer being saved. It is understood there was no insurance.

MACARONI IN ITALY.

To the Working People This Food Is a Luxury.

Every one pictures the Italian as eating macaroni. What if I tell you that the Italians, taking them as a people, do not eat macaroni, and yet this is virtually true. Macaroni in Italy costs 4 to 8 cents a pound, and it is too costly for common use. It is about as accurate to say that the Italians live on macaroni as that the Americans live on turkey. Macaroni to the working Italian is a luxury. You often see young fellows on a holiday indulging in a dish in a restaurant or before a street cook stand about as Americans would eat ice cream. A customary workman's dinner is a hunk of bread broken apart and "buttered" with a few traces of tomato sauce. As for meat, it is the greatest rarity, and the only drink they can afford is water, which has the advantage of being cheap and filling. The Italians at home are not only temperate, but abstemious. Wine and beer and even tea, coffee and chocolate are forbidden to them on account of the expense. In all Italy we saw no one under the influence of liquor. So also there is practically no smoking. The government has a monopoly of the tobacco business, buys its supplies in quantities direct in America and elsewhere and charges three prices for everything. The few tobacco shops keep a piece of smoldering tow tied at the doorpost, so that patrons and passers may light their cigars by it.—Los Angeles Times.

WOMAN'S WIT UNCERTAIN.

As When This Wife Failed to Appreciate Hubby's Pleasantry.

"Don't always rely upon the ready wit of a woman," said the man who is sometimes pleased to consider himself an oracle. "That ready wit business is sometimes prone to get away off." "For example, my wife and children had been staying in the country for several weeks, and I was regular with my letters, as every loving husband should be. Finally on the day before my wife was to start for home I concluded my letter to her with these words:

"This will be the last letter I will write to you for a long, long time."

"When I got down to my office the next morning I found a telegram from my wife waiting for me. 'What on earth do you mean?' read the dispatch."

"Later a registered letter came from her. She had blotted almost every line with tears. What it was all about I could not imagine."

"Then my telephone bell rang, and when I answered I heard my wife's voice speaking over the long distance phone."

"Oh, John," said she, "is that really you? I thought you had committed suicide!"—Washington Post.

Remedy For Choking.

"Raising the left arm as high as you can will relieve choking much more rapidly than the act of thumping one's back," said a physician. "And it is well that every one should know it, for often a person gets choked while eating where there is no one near to thump him. Very frequently at meals and when they are at play children get choked while eating, and the customary manner of relieving them is to slap them sharply on the back. The effect of this is to set the obstruction free. The same thing can be brought about by raising the left hand of the child as high as possible, and the relief comes much more quickly. To happenings of this kind there should be no alarm, for if the child sees that older persons or parents get excited the effect is bad. The best thing is to tell the child to raise its left arm, and immediately the difficulty passes away."

GALLINGER OPPOSED REDUCTION OF DUTY

Washington, June 19.—Taking the floor in defense of his duties on print paper recommended by the Committee on Finance, Senator Gallinger Friday made reply to the statements of Senator Brown in favor of placing print paper on the free list. It was expected that Senator Brown resumed his speech today, but preferring to postpone any further remarks upon his amendment he gave way to Mr. Gallinger, who referred at length to precautions that had been taken by New England States to preserve the forests, especially in view of the activity of the wood pulp industry. For eleven years, he said, the paper manufacturers had been advocating forest preservation and in doing so had purchased twice as much land in Canada as in the United States. He declared that in wages alone the Canadian paper manufacturers have an advantage of more than $2 a ton in making of paper, besides an advantage of $3 a cord on wood. Print paper, he declared, was cheaper in the United States than in any other country. "The price," he said, "has been kept down by competition. It is conceded that no trust exists and that there is no combination to advance the price of paper."

The newspapers, he declared, were subject of free print paper. "The clamor for this legislation," he said, "comes largely from the cheap and sensational part of the newspaper press." A reduction of the duty on paper, Mr. Gallinger said, would not only bring Canadian paper here, but Norway, Sweden and Finland, with cheap labor and abundant forests of spruce, would enter our markets. "If the increase in the price of an article is the reason of putting it on the free list," said Mr. Gallinger, "then this bill ought to be made up of the free list and nothing else."

Saying that he had been in the paper mills of Canada and knew of the wages received there, Mr. Gallinger declared that wages in this country are thirty per cent. greater than in any province in the Dominion of Canada in all industries, paper making included. He presented petitions against reduction of duty on print paper from the Knights of Labor and Brotherhood of Paper Makers and said these workmen were quick to detect danger by such action. If Canada, he said, gets control of the wood pulp and print business, the newspapers will be at their mercy in the matter of price. He believed the rate of duty recommended by the Committee on Finance to be too small and predicted that it would be regarded as a monumental blunder. He preferred to continue the duty of the Dingley law.

Senator Owen again calling attention to what he characterized as the contradictory statements made before the Finance Committee, declared that where men swear falsely for commercial profit they should be prosecuted for perjury. No one, he said, had been called to account for making a false statement in connection with this tariff.

All the democrats, except Mr. Taft, voted for the amendment, while among the Republicans only Senators Beveridge, Bristow, Brown and Burkett voted for it. On this amendment Senator Lorimer cast his first vote and it was against the amendment.

Following close upon the defeat of Mr. Brown's amendment, Mr. Stone offered an amendment placing "wood pulp print paper, suitable for books and newspapers" on the free list. It was opposed by Senator Bailey on the ground that it would remit $700,000 in revenue, he said, the Government now collects especially "as the only people who would receive any benefit from that remission is a single small particular class."

The contract for the quay wall extension calls for the finish of the same in eight months. The work includes the addition of 80 feet to the wing of the dry dock and a depth of 58 feet, giving a space of 170 feet of wall on the water front. AUTO DOES FUNNY STUNT

A well known young lady who rides around the city in a handsome automobile had a bunch of trouble at the depot on Friday evening. Her machine acted rather funny and she became somewhat excited in trying to check its speed. She was not successful however until it went hard against the building. A half dozen men who were nearby ran to her assistance and dragged the machine off the sidewalk. No serious damage occurred to the automobile but it continued to do funny stunts until she had it safely landed in at her home.

FEEL EVERY CHANGE OF THE WEATHER

A Bad Back is Always Worse During Wet or Changeable Weather

Is your back like a barometer? Does it foretell every change of weather? Does every cold settle on your kidneys? Bring aching, throbbing pains? Does it absorb the urine? The kidneys are calling for help. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Recommended by Portsmouth testimony.

A. S. Woodward, 5 Wentworth St., Portsmouth, N. H., says: "I first used Doan's Kidney Pills in the summer of 1905. At that time I was suffering from backache which always became worse when I caught cold. I also had a kidney weakness that was very annoying. Doan's Kidney Pills acted just as represented in my case and after using them a short time the backache disappeared and the trouble with the kidney secretions was relieved. I know of more than one case in which Doan's Kidney Pills have proven just as satisfactory as they did in mine and I can endorse them strongly."
